What is Art Money?

Money for art's sake.

Interest free loans to buy art.

Instant approval. Take your art home and pay for it later.

Art Money provides interest free loans to buy art at participating galleries. Loans are available from $675 to $18,000.

Art Money makes owning art easy and affordable. Payments are spread over 10 equal monthly payments. After paying a minimum 10% deposit, you can take your artwork home and pay the remaining balance over 9 months, interest free.

With an Art Money loan, an artwork that costs $5,000 is only $500 a month over 10 payments (your first payment is your deposit).

Terms and conditions apply. Refer to the FAQs for further information.

Using Art Money is easy

Apply for an Art Money loan online at artmoney.com.au

Find art you love at participating galleries.

Finalise your loan application at the gallery and pay your deposit.

Congratulations! The artwork is yours to take home and enjoy.

Here's how Art Money works...

1. Apply

You can apply for an Art Money loan online at artmoney.com.au. It only takes a few minutes. Once approved, your loan is available to use at any participating Art Money gallery for up to 30 days.

Loans are available from $675 to $18,000. Art Money can lend you up to 90% of the artwork price.

2. Choose

Find a gallery and choose your work. Art Money is currently available in participating galleries in Australia and New Zealand. Browse the gallery list on the Art Money website, visit the gallery in person or online, and explore what they have for sale.

3. Buy

Once you have found a work you'd like to buy, log in and finalise your application. You will need your driver licence or passport, a minimum 10% deposit and your credit card or bank account details. The gallery will then complete the process and you will be sent a confirmation email. Your next payment will be debited one month after purchase.

4. Enjoy

Congratulations! The work is yours to take home and enjoy.

Frequently asked questions

Am I eligible for an Art Money loan?

To be eligible to apply for an Art Money loan, you will need to:

- Be an individual applying in your own name
- Be 18 years or over
- Be an Australian citizen or permanent resident
- Have an income of at least $30,000 p.a. from all sources, including investments
- Have a clear credit history (no dishonours, defaults, court judgements or bankruptcies within the last 5 years and not be an undischarged bankrupt)
- Hold a current Australian driver licence or passport
- Have a nominated account or credit card which we are able to debit

Art Money is not available at this time for companies, partnerships, trusts, institutions or superannuation funds.

How much can I borrow?

Art Money provides interest free loans from $675 to $18,000.

Art Money's responsible lending obligations mean that exactly how much you are able to borrow will depend on a number of factors that we assess including your income, credit history and your ability to repay the loan. The maximum amount anyone can borrow from Art Money at any one time is $18,000. This may be spread across more than one loan. Fees and charges are detailed in the credit contract that is made available when we offer you the loan and in the FAQs.

FAQ

What is the term of the loan and how many payments will I need to make?

Payment is spread over 10 monthly payments. Your first payment is the deposit paid directly to the gallery.

Your Art Money loan covers the remaining balance of 9 equal payments over 9 months, interest free. Your initial loan repayment to Art Money will be debited one month after purchase.

For example with an Art Money loan, an artwork that costs $5,000 is only $500 a month over 10 payments (the first payment is the deposit).

Fees and charges are detailed in the credit contract that is made available when we offer you the loan and in the FAQs.

What can I buy?

You can buy any artwork available for sale from participating art galleries. There are no restrictions on the kind of artwork you can purchase.

Where is Art Money available?

Art Money is currently offered in participating galleries in Australia and New Zealand. Visit the Art Money website and sign up to the e-news for new gallery updates.

How long will the application process take?

Applications are made online and only take a few minutes. When you are ready to buy a specific artwork you will need to visit the gallery in person to complete the transaction.

What if I'm interstate or can't come to the gallery in person?

If you would like to use Art Money but are unable to visit the gallery please contact us and we will facilitate the process directly.

How long is my approval valid?

Your loan approval is valid for up to 30 days. If you haven't found an artwork you would like to buy within 30 days, just re-apply when you are ready to activate your loan.

What happens if my loan application is referred?

An application may be referred for a number of reasons, including being unable to identify you or verify your personal details. If your application is referred we will contact you with more information.

Are there setup charges or ongoing fees?

There are no setup charges to use Art Money. A $5 processing fee is charged per monthly repayment.

If you choose to use your credit card to repay your loan, a 2% credit card processing fee also applies. Art Money accepts Visa and Mastercard. If you choose to repay by direct debit straight from your bank account the 2% credit card fee does not apply.

Note: a temporary $1 charge to verify your account will appear on your statement – we will refund this to you one week later. Should you default or miss a repayment, a $20 dishonour fee will apply. You may also be required to pay default interest on the unpaid amount of any overdue repayment. Fees and charges are detailed in the credit contract that is made available in the loan offer.

Do I own the artwork whilst I pay it off?

Yes, once your loan has been approved and you pay your deposit you own the work. As part of the credit agreement Art Money holds a Personal Property Security over the artwork until it has been fully paid off.

Can I use Art Money to buy a work that costs more than $20,000?

Yes, as long as the amount of the loan is no more than $18,000. For example an artwork that costs $30,000 could be paid for with a $12,000 deposit and an approved Art Money loan for the balance of $18,000 ($2,000 x 9 payments).

Can I use Art Money to buy more than one work?

Yes, you can use Art Money to buy multiple artworks as long as you have no more than your maximum approved limit outstanding at any one time. Additional art works will require additional loan applications. You will need to finalise an application before commencing another.

Do I need to insure the artwork?

Yes, you will need to keep the artwork insured as part of the Terms and Conditions of the loan. Most household insurance policies will be adequate. If you own numerous artworks we recommend specialist art insurance from AON, our insurance partner. Contact Amy Wadsworth for a no obligation quote on +61 2 9253 7119.

Can I pay my account off early?

Yes, you can pay the outstanding balance of your account at any time and there is no penalty for doing so. To do this simply contact Art Money via info@artmoney.com.au or call us on 1300 31 66 11.

What happens if I have a problem making a repayment?

Please contact Art Money immediately to discuss your circumstances via info@artmoney.com.au or call us on 1300 31 66 11.

Can I increase my loan if I find a higher priced artwork?

You can apply to increase the loan amount when you confirm the artwork price. We will need to reassess your application. In most cases this only takes a few seconds.

Can I buy a work in a foreign currency?

Yes, Art Money allows for purchases in different currencies. Your loan will be converted to your local currency calculated at the exchange rate at the time you accept the loan contract.

What if I have a complaint about my Art Money loan?

Art Money has both internal and external dispute resolution schemes that are intended to deal with any customer complaint concerning our loans.

If you are a customer and have a complaint then you should first contact us at the following:

1300 31 66 11
complaints@artmoney.com.au

If we are unable to resolve your complaint you may contact the Credit & Investments Ombudsman:

Credit & Investments Ombudsman Ltd
PO Box A252, South Sydney NSW 1235
cio.org.au

Why does the gallery need to take a copy of my photo ID?

Art Money has an obligation to identify its customers accurately under Australian anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism finance laws, which is why galleries are required to take a copy of your photo ID.

Who pays if the loan is interest free?

The gallery partners with Art Money to make your loan interest free. The gallery pays Art Money an amount equivalent to the standard interest charge that would otherwise be payable on your loan. This enables Art Money to provide the loan to you, interest free.

Who is behind Art Money?

Art Money is delivered by 10 Group and supported by the City of Sydney as part of their Cultural Policy and Action Plan.
